

The Bay Area Academic League invites you to the GUY FAWKES BUZZER EXPLOSION, commemorating the debacle some 400+ years ago when Parliament was nearly leveled by Sir Guy (Gaius?) Fawkes after of a tough quiz bowl loss.

Location: CAL Berkeley (site can move) on 5 Nov 2011, registration will be at 10:30am.

This tournament will also serve as a qualifier for the Quiz Kids TV show. It is fairly likely that a national organization (maybe PACE) will count this event as a qualifier if the turnout exceeds 10 teams.

Teams play four spots at a time with substitution allowed at the half. We suggest four or five players a team if you want to alternate.

This event will run BAALT style at the request of QuizKids, so each round will feature 25 power TUs. Every team will play seven matches (full RR if possible in each pool). Teams will divide into a JV and a varsity division. We will keep statistics and find a prize for the winning teams and top players.

“Lads, only four of us can play at a time. Who agrees to sub out at the half, Wright and Bates for Winter and me?”

$100 for a first team, $75 for each additional team from the same school

Discounts:

1. -$20 experienced moderator
2. -$10 scorekeeper
3. -$10 working buzzer
4. -$10 prepay - per team (postmark by 1 Nov.)
5. -$10 new to BAAL discount (eligible schools are those who attended their first quizbowl tournament in September 2011 or later and should have gotten a discount then)

How to register: Please contact Gaius Stern (gaius@berkeley.edu), indicating how many teams, buzzers, and staffers your school plans to bring.

Please make checks payable to Gaius Stern BAAL PM
